RECOGNITION OF LEGACY GIFT

As a legacy donor to WildEarth Guardians, you become a member of our Aldo Leopold Society and join other thoughtful Guardians who have made this commitment to our work. Aldo Leopold Society members are our most loyal champions and enjoy invitations to exclusive events, receive our biannual strategic update, our annual report, and more, all while making an incredible impact on Guardians' work. We will also occasionally list our Society members in Guardians publications such as the newsletter or annual report.

In recognizing this gift, I/we wish to:

- Remain Anonymous
- Authorize WildEarth Guardians to list my(our) name as:

---

If you prefer not to receive any of the perks listed above, please let us know here:

YOUR LEGACY STORY

Through this gift, you are leaving a legacy which will safeguard an American West where future generations can experience the sense of awe and wonder in the natural world that we can today. We would love to hear your story and what has inspired your deep commitment to our work. And if you're comfortable, it would be our pleasure to share your story in order to inspire others. Below please provide more information on why you've chosen to make this commitment. What is your legacy story?

- Please check this box if you are comfortable with Guardians sharing all, or part, of your story for the purpose of inspiring others. We would, of course, check with you again before using it.
