Re: OBJECTION - Flathead Forest Plan

To Regional Forester Marten:

This is an objection to the U.S. Forest Service's decision to select Alternative B Modified for the Flathead forest plan revision. As required by 36 C.F.R. 219.54(c), the lead objector's name, address, and telephone number or email:

Marla Fox
80 SE Madison, Suite 210
Portland, OR 97214

mfox@wildearthguardians.org

The undersigned submitted timely comments on the Flathead forest plan revision draft environmental impact statement (DEIS) on October 3, 2017. The comments supported revising the Flathead National Forest Plan to account for changes in conditions and demands since 1986. We urged the Forest Service to draft a plan (1) with strong habitat direction to ensure survival and recovery of imperiled grizzly bears, bull trout, Canada lynx, and wolverine based on best available science, (2) that ensures connectivity with surrounding federal public lands and resiliency in the face of climate change, and (3) that prioritizes our wild resources for future generations instead of increasing off-road vehicle and snowmobile use on the Forest.

We object to the draft plan because it falls well short of what is necessary to adequately protect wildlife and wild places on the Flathead. For example, it eliminates road density standards essential to maintaining grizzly bear populations and protecting water quality for imperiled bull trout. It fails to account for best available science showing very real, harmful impacts to species like lynx and wolverine from motorized use. It fails to designate all roadless areas as recommended Wilderness. And it lacks direction toward a smaller, financially sustainable future road system.

To resolve this objection, the Forest Service should revise its plan to ensure a future for the Flathead that protects imperiled wildlife and wild places.

Sincerely,

Marla Fox
